Why do you believe you would be the best candidate for the position?

I became a Director in 1997 and have been committed ever since then to making sure the Credit Union meets all of the financial needs of our members. Over the years, I have pushed to get our members many services such as e-statements, home banking, courtesy pay, money market accounts and the mystery shop, to name a few. As your Director, I will continue to make sure that the Credit Union is there with the latest technology to handle our members' financial endeavors and well-being.

Tell us about your background.

I have been a member of the Credit Union for 34 years. I started out working for the County's Office of Law and handled all of the County's tax matters. Subsequently, I became the County's Director of Finance and today I am the Director of Finance for the Prince George's County Public Schools. With my accounting and tax background, I am able to contribute to the depth and growth of the Credit Union.

Tell us about your hobbies (if any).

I like watching sporting events and enjoy getting involved with community events.

KLASS-KENDALL

Why do you believe you would be
the best candidate for the position?

I am a long-term resident of Prince George's County and have been a member of the credit union since 2010. I am dedicated to serving the residents and friends of the county. I am interested in building partnerships with the residents to promote financial success and share the solutions that the credit union offers. I am open to learning, educating and being supportive of the mission of Prince George's Community FCU. I can bring balance and wisdom to the Board.

Tell us about your background.

I am originally from Brooklyn, New York. Due to a family tragedy at young age, I had a strong desire and passion to care for the ill. My graduate studies were completed at the University of Maryland. I have been a registered nurse for 40+ years working in New York City, and locally at Providence Hospital, DC General Hospital, the DC Jail and presently for the Prince George's Health Department. I am passionate about supporting and caring for HIV patients. I have organized flu vaccinations in the local community through the Health Department.

I am currently serving as Vice-President of AFSCME local 3389.

SEAN EAMES
(Incumbent)

Why do you believe you would be
the best candidate for the position?

Sean Eames was elected to the Board of Directors in 2009 and has been a member of the Prince George's Community Federal Credit Union (PGCFCU) for over thirty years. During his tenure, the Credit Union Assets have grown from $111 million to $250 million. He believes in the credit union's philosophy and movement, which is to provide its member with superior customer service, the opportunity to accumulate savings, and to provide access to affordable loans and lines of credit. As a Board member, he devotes himself to intimately understand the operations of PGCFCU and works to serve in the best interest of its members. He diligently works with other Board Members to ensure that the credit union's strategic plan and core services are designed to provide exemplary services to the community and other business affiliations.

Tell us about your background.

Sean E. Eames is a retired Assistant Fire Chief and Paramedic with the Prince George's County Fire/EMS Department. He has served operationally in numerous fire suppression and paramedic assignments. His administrative assignments have included Commander of the Fire Prevention Bureau, Executive Assistant to the Fire Chief, Executive Assistant to the Special Operations Deputy, and Executive Assistant to the Director of Public Safety/Homeland Security.

As Executive Assistant to the Director of Public Safety/Homeland Security, he assisted with overseeing the operations of the Fire/EMS and Police Department, Department of Corrections, Office of the Sheriff, Office of Emergency Management, Public Safety Communications, and Homeland Security Administration. This responsibility included managing budgets totaling over $480 million dollars, monitoring/approving human resource actions for over 3,000 personnel and developing/implementing strategic plans for large-scale special events and disasters.

Tell us about your hobbies (if any).

My hobbies are running, hiking and traveling. My favorite thing to do is to spend "Quality Time with My Family."

MAURENE MCNEIL
(Incumbent)

Why do you believe you would be the best candidate for the position?

I have worked with the credit union for several years and throughout this period have attended numerous credit union seminars/conferences offering training on financial literacy, Board duties, and providing excellent financial services to the members. I serve as Chair of the Governance Committee, responsible for the review and revision of compliance policies that the Board must set and follow. I believe the knowledge I've gained over these years is an asset. My focus has been improving the credit union experience for all members- from tweens to retirees!

I am an ambassador for the credit union - touting its benefits far and wide. In short, I love the credit union and am honored to serve it and the members.

Tell us about your background.

I am employed by the Prince George's County Council as the Chief Zoning Hearing Examiner ("ZHE") responsible for issuing decisions on various land use requests within the County. I have also been employed as a Deputy County Attorney in the County's Office of Law, and as a Deputy Sheriff for Prince George's County, Maryland.

I am active in my community. I have volunteered with and served on the Board for Christmas in April (a nonprofit that renovates the homes of the elderly/disabled in Prince George's County). I am a member and past President of the J. Franklyn Bourne Bar Association and the Prince George's County Bar Association, and a member of Leadership Prince George's and Leadership Greater Washington.

Tell us about your hobbies (if any).

In my spare time I enjoy reading, biking, walking and shopping!
